AMP Capital Investors appoints Head of Multi Asset Group

AMP Capital Investors today announced it had appointed David Kiddie in a new role as Head of the Multi Asset Group. Mr Kiddie will report to AMP Capital Investors Managing Director Stephen Dunne, effective 4 November 2009.

The Multi Asset Group brings together the Strategy and Economics, Future Directions, and Funds & Structured teams into one investment capability. Combining these teams into a single, more efficient structure will align their investment management capabilities and enhance the offering to clients.

AMP Capital Investors Managing Director Stephen Dunne said the newly formed Multi Asset Group led by Mr Kiddie will result in more compelling investment solutions for clients.

“David has a wealth of experience across the majority of global equity markets and has spent many years investing throughout Europe on behalf of institutional and retail clients.

“As Head of the Multi Asset Group, he will lead a highly experienced division that is one of Australia’s leaders in multi-asset and multi-manager solutions. This Group will expand its capabilities to offer a range of client solutions utilising the full breadth of its capabilities,” Mr Dunne said.

Mr Kiddie has 25 years experience in the investment management industry and has gained substantial experience in global asset management businesses both as a portfolio manager and Chief Investment Officer. He was most recently Senior Investment Advisor for AllenbridgeEPIC Investment Advisers in the UK – a company of independent investment experts who advise pension funds and investment committees on investment-related issues.

Mr Kiddie has held Chief Investment Officer roles at ABN AMRO Asset Management and Rothschild Asset Management/Insight Investment in the UK. He was responsible for all equity products at Baring Asset Management and held Head of European Equities positions at Hill Samuel Asset Management and Sun Life Investment Management. His other positions include Strategist for Enskilda Securities, Director for Baring International Investment Ltd and European Investment Manager for Chemical Bank.
