AMP Capital Investors announces senior infrastructure appointment for Beijing

AMP Capital Investors continues to strengthen its Infrastructure team with the appointment of Xiao Wei as Co-head of Infrastructure Asia.

Based in Beijing, Mr Xiao will work with Anoop Seth, Co-Head of Infrastructure Asia based in Mumbai to source infrastructure investment opportunities for the new wholesale AMP Capital Asian Giants Infrastructure Fund.

The Fund offers institutional investors access to diversified infrastructure investment in the growing economies of Asia, predominately focused on infrastructure projects in India and China.

Mr Xiao joins AMP Capital with over 15 years experience in infrastructure development, operations and investment. His previous roles include China Country Manager of AES (a large US power development operating company) and CEO of AES China Generating Company and China Country Head of Meiya Power. Mr Xiao has a Masters of Accounting and a Masters of Business Administration from Washington State University.

AMP Capital Investors Global Head of Infrastructure Philip Garling said: "A key part of our strategy in infrastructure is to strengthen our deal sourcing and asset management capability across Asia and Europe. Having senior people on the ground in these regions managing and sourcing infrastructure investments is crucial.

"I am pleased to appoint Xiao Wei to our team. His strong background in infrastructure development means he is well placed to help us realise our Asian ambitions," Mr Garling said.

AMP Capital first established a presence in China in 1997 and has been investing in Asian Infrastructure since 1994. AMP Capital now manages in excess of A$101 billion assets under management and A$3.5 billion in infrastructure investments in Australia, New Zealand, Asia and Europe as at 30 June 2008.
